Exalted Ruler Message

Members all,

As I prepare my final ER's message I must reflect on this past year. First I have to thank all of my officers who put in the time and effort that it took to support my year of events and activities, you did a GREAT job.

Second I must thank all the volunteers who stepped forward to help when and where you could, but what was nice was the hand full of new members who have volunteered and have stepped up for the new set of officers that are coming in for year 2017/2018. I can't start to list everyone by name because I would forget a few, but you all know who you are, and thank you one and all for being the great Elks that you are.

We had 3 first place winners in Coastal Hoop-Shoot, so they travelled on to Manchester, CT. at which we had 2 first place winners, these 2 young ladies now travel on to Portland, ME., March 25,26,27 for the regionals. I've been told that Milford Lodge has never had anyone go to the Regionals, so myself and John Ogorman will be headed to Portland to support our 2 first place girls.

In closing, again my heartfelt thanks to all that made my year a success, as I have mentioned so many times before we are all volunteers and it takes all of us volunteering to make the Lodge and Exalted Rulers year a successful one and I would ask all to be as helpful to Elect Exalted Ruler Ray Bernor and his Officers as you were for me so we can keep the momentum going.

I'll still be around for anyone who needs a hand or help with an issue or an event.

Fraternally yours, Jeff Hall

Officers Notes

Members All,

Dues were mailed for the 2017-2018 Lodge year and remember you can pay them by mailing a check or stopping down to the Lodge and paying by credit card to the steward once you receive the bill. Please do remember to add your email if you do not want the bulletin mailed anymore and save the Lodge some money. Also any new address or phone numbers you may have.

Don't want to sound like a broken record but this is your last chance to pay your dues if your delinquent, I will have to drop your membership if not received ASAP so please if you see your number as delinquent call me or stop down and pay them so you can stay in good standing with the lodge.

It was a pleasure to have served as your Lodge Secretary for the past year and please show Lisa Murray the same respect. Please support all your new officers coming in April and see ya around the Lodge.
